KSA LEGISLATIVE REPORT FOR WEEK BEGINNING FEB. 15

LEGISLATIVE UPDATE!

HB267: Constables

Filed by Rep. Adam Koenig, R-Erlanger, and House Democratic Floor Leader Joni Jenkins, D-Louisville, the bill would curtail and eliminate law enforcement and other powers and duties from constables. Support

HB267 is scheduled to be heard Wednesday, Feb. 17, at noon by the House Local Government Committee. Please review the committee members. If your House member is on the committee, call him or her and ask that they please support HB267. Legislators can be reached by calling 502-564-8100. Or email your legislator using this format:

Firstname.lastname@lrc.ky.gov

Following are some quick points to make about the bill:

- HB267 does not eliminate the position of constable, but it does remove the peace officers powers of untrained constables.
- Untrained constables endanger public safety and can cost local governments money when their actions result in legal fees and lawsuits.
- There are close to 500 constables with guns and badges in Kentucky. They can make a traffic stop, issue a fine and even make an arrest. Despite this broad power, constables are not required to meet any of the Peace Officer Professional Standards (POPS) that are required of other law enforcement.
- The bill gives constables an opportunity to receive training by allowing constables to apply to any KLEC certified basic training course and by requiring DOCJT to accept at least one constable a year.
- By ensuring that constables are trained law enforcement personnel, we will better protect the public and the community.

Livestreams of legislative action can be viewed through feeds provided by Kentucky Educational Television (KET) and the Legislative Research Commission (LRC.) In recent months, LRC has made significant tech upgrades in committee rooms to improve livestreams for those viewing meetings remotely. KET livestreams all chamber proceedings and many committee meetings. Any meetings not covered by KET are livestreamed by LRC. For links to livestreams, go to the Kentucky General Assembly Website and click on the “Live Coverage” button in the lower right corner.
